Introduction

Your astrological horoscope (natal chart) at birth is an important key to your personality and character, but your natal chart is not the last word about you. As time moves on after the moment of your birth, the Sun, Moon, and planets continue to circle through the heavens forming ever-changing kaleidoscopic patterns in relation to your own birth chart, bringing out or obscuring this or that part of you.

It can be useful to know how these ongoing planetary patterns relate to your life, and that is what this report is about. Here we calculate the primary astrological changes in your chart and interpret them so that you can see at a glance what is happening at any given time. Your events are arranged and interpreted chronologically, by well-known astrologer Michael Erlewine, and each event includes date and time, keywords, astrological indicator, and an astro-tarot card. We hope you enjoy your forecast.

In the tradition of astrology the planets have always been interpreted separately from the Sun and the Moon, which are called "The Lights," and for good reason. They literally light up our life and their combined interaction describes the essence of what is happening to us at any given time. Although called "The Moon Report," any mention of the Moon automatically involves the Sun, and of course, our Earth. These three, the Sun, Moon, and Earth, in their endless interaction are perhaps the single most important factor to observe in astrology.

The ever-changing relationship in the sky between the Sun and the Moon is perhaps most obvious at the Full Moon, but as we know, it is going on all the time. This report tracks the Sun-Moon relationship as it relates to your particular natal horoscope and birth chart, detailing all of the major events that take place in the current month for a specific life area and planet.

The Moon has always represented the 'mother', meaning anything that nurtures or cares for us, our support system, however that is made up. It also indicates our emotional makeup, how we feel about things, and the nostalgia of the past - where we came from.

On the other hand, the Sun represents the 'father' principle and the future, where we are heading toward and, to some degree, the means we have to get there. The Sun burns brightly, while the Moon is cool and comforting. The two together mark the endless play between the past and the future, and we here on Earth, are caught right in the middle, that is: the present.

Your Venus Forecast

This forecast reports combines the Sun, Moon, and Earth with one of the traditional planets, in this case the planet Venus, and examines their interplay. The resulting forecasts points out all major activity for the coming time period that involves that planet. Let's take a moment to review some of the traditional meanings for Venus.

Venus is the planet of love and compassion, everything we care about and also how we go about caring. The planet Venus not only relates to questions of romance, but is also all about our values, what we value, and the value of things in our life. This is why Venus is also connected to money, wealth, and all 'valuables'- what we value. So Venus also has to do not just with love and appreciation, but also with the appreciation and value of things in general, whether they are gems, antiques, or just plain money.

At the same time, the higher sensitivities of Venus signify care and compassion, the more infinite side of our love. This forecast has to do with how Venus is configured in your natal chart for the immediate future. We hope you enjoy it.

Venus in your Natal Chart

Before we present your Venus forecast for the coming months, let's review how the planet Venus is configured in your natal or birth chart. What follows is an interpretation of Venus at your birth to the Sun, Moon, and other planets. It should help to give you a general idea of how you approach matters of love and values. Here goes:

Venus Trine Moon
(Waning)
253°56'

Caring For

You have a feeling of pride or confidence concerning your family, younger persons, or the past - a real sense of accomplishment. You may love history, the past, and sharing this appreciation you have with others, as a teacher or a friend.

Venus Semisquare Sun
(Waxing)
044°54'

Make the Effort

You are idealist when it comes to valuing your elders and authority, in general, and you tend to put those with more experience than you on a pedestal. What you wish to be and what turns up don't always match, and you can experience this as a real annoyance. Your sense of appreciation, in the sense of being able to measure and appraise things, then becomes clouded, when obstacles appear in your path, perhaps generated from something in your own past. Patience at these points and steady ongoing effort is the key to clearing these out, and making progress.

Venus Semisextile Mercury
(Waning)
330°45'

Key Words

You have not just a critical eye for all that is beautiful, but one that is only interested in the essence of the essence, the very heart of beauty - what remains, when all the unessential is stripped away.

Venus Semisquare Mars
(Waxing)
042°45'

Stones in the Pathway

Your plans to acquire things (whatever they might be) or craving for a more physical existence (sports, or even sex) at times meets with delays or at least some piece of resistance that you must work through. Best move here is to patiently keep moving.

Venus Square Jupiter
(Waning)
270°46'

Public Success

You may have somewhat expansive and easier times, ones that bring a chance to evaluate how you feel about your career situation, the path you have taken. You may find yourself tending to draw conclusions in these areas of a more conservative nature. Probably these are not times to take on extra projects or start new ones. More likely, you will find yourself generally taking stock, and even closing down a few areas that are not productive.

Venus Sextile Saturn
(Waning)
286°36'

Keen Appraisal

You have easy and energetic times, where your critical powers are sharp and your concern for getting to the truth, down to the nitty-gritty is strong. It is tough love when it comes to appraisal and separating the wheat from the chaff.

Venus Opposite Uranus
(Waning)
189°28'

Experiencing Freedom

You will have experiences of real independence, freedom, the sheer love of being different or eccentric. Could also refer to times when you are inventive, or appreciate variety or what is different.

Venus Trine Neptune
(Waning)
242°14'

Preserving

You naturally love whatever is inspirational and imaginative, and you probably like to share or tell others about it, as well. The teacher. You will have some times when you are more aware of spiritual concerns, and probably able to put them into words and communicate with others about them.

Venus Sextile Pluto
(Waning)
299°14'

Nitty-Gritty

You can be compulsively analytical, whether that be psychologically or just digging into the heart of some situation, and getting down to the nitty-gritty. In any case, you enjoy getting at what is important, and exposing what is not.

Venus Goes Retrograde

Venus Stationary Retrograde (Wax) Transit to Transit

This is a turning point that affects your affection and values, if that phrase may be allowed. Not what you care about or love, but how you care about things, how you love. That is what is undergoing change here. And life can appear arbitrary enough to suddenly change directions and it takes a day or two for us to catch on that something is different.

What is different here is that where before your appreciation was ongoing or future oriented, now much of that could fade at this point, leaving you either at a loss for how you feel or grasping around for what you used to like, starting to look backward to the way you felt before.

This is not the time to appreciate, appraise, or put a value on new things or to reach out or forward. The tide of your affections has turned, and you find yourself feeling differently. This will sort itself out in a day or so, and you will probably gradually give up what you were reaching for, and begin to appreciate what you already have and are used to valuing.

Tuesday

Long Suffering

Moon Sextile Venus (Wax) Transit to Transit

An easier time, now, one with energy, where you should be able to move plans involving your family, caring for younger people, a mothering influence, or perhaps something to do with your past, forward. This could well involve your accepting a less-than-perfect scenario, accepting the facts just as they are, in order to make progress here.

Love of the Future

Venus Conjunct Sun (Wax) Transit to Transit

Your sense of values is clear and accurate at this time. This is a shift in affections, one that may not at first be all that apparent to you, but that will in time become known. You can feel the change, but may not know how to work with it or best take advantage of it. Before you were feeling more hopeful, perhaps expectant and forward looking with your affections, how you care about people and things. And now you will find yourself appreciating more what you have, rather than what you could or feel you should have. It is a simple change of direction from outer to a more inward sense, a valuing of what 'is' rather than what could or should be.
