Welcome to Life Chakras

Welcome to 'Life Chakras,' a view of the chakras or great centers of life-activity from an astrological perspective, as they relate to your particular birth chart. It is important to understand that although the chakras are often pictured as multi-colored force centers along the spinal column within the body, they are in actuality vast areas of life outside our physical self in which we live and move. For example, although the Jupiter Chakra within the body is sometimes shown as an orange-colored light in the lower spine, it in fact refers to our entire life path, our career, and how we find our way through the thicket of Saturn - all the nature laws and rules of the world. Each chakra is a whole world we get lost in for various lengths of time (or lifetimes), so keep that in mind. More in-depth details about each of the seven chakras and the other planetary force centers are given later in this report.

There has been a lot written about the chakras, but little of it is based on pure astrological and astronomical facts. The technique used here considers the very heart and skeleton of the solar system itself in relations to you, the exact inclinations and disinclinations of each planet to the orbits of the other planets. This research was first published by the author in the early 1970s in the book 'Interface: Planetary Nodes' and was recognized as valid by many of the most advanced technical astrologers of the time, veterans like Charles A. Jayne and Theodor Landscheidt. Here we are using an astronomical analysis of the nodal and skeletal structure of the entire solar system, reducing these points to a technique that can indicate our inclinations and disinclinations (likes and dislikes) in life. There are more technical details at the end of this report, for those who study astrology.

How This Relates to You

'Life Chakras' analysis can answer some very basic, but interesting, questions, such as: As a person, are you predominately up most of the time or the other way around? Do you say 'Yes' to life, or do you have some reservations and, if so, what are they? Are you inclined to work on career and have a strong life path? What areas of life are you naturally disinclined to, and have problems with? In other words, what parts of life do you naturally take to and where do you tend to shy away from or ignore?

There are many levels of astrology and every level has its purpose. I have studied astrology for some fifty years, and the 'Life Chakra' technique has as deep a core as any technique I have worked with, and I have worked with most of them. It is not about personalities and surface texture, but rather about heart essence, and it gets down to the nitty-gritty right off. I must warn that this technique is very frank. It does not mince words, but presents what actually is out there in the solar system itself, plain and unvarnished. When I first worked with it, I was shocked at how candid it is, but I soon found it was very reliable and hit the mark most of the time. Unlike many chakra-oriented techniques, this one is not at all abstract, but offers very down-to-earth comments on your native inclinations and disinclinations, so let's get to it.

Interface Points

22 Points: 14 Positive and 8 Negative

You can see above what percentage of your approach to life has to do with affinities or inclinations and what has to do with disinclinations, where you rub up against stuff. Keep in mind; these percentages say nothing about how many of these combinations you actually have. We covered that above.

What these percentages are about are, regardless of whether you have many or few, how positive or negative are they and, correspondingly, are you. Do you have more affinities in life or more areas where you are not inclined? That is the question we are looking at here.

Totally Involved

You are deeply involved in your life (and very opinionated), for you have a great many inclinations and disinclinations indicated in your natal chart, and some are even working at cross purposes to one another. Tendencies, antipathies, partialities, indifferences, predispositions - all of these take up perhaps too much of your attention and time. Your mind never stops and you probably are occupied with your own likes and dislikes more than you are even aware of or would care to admit.

With all of this constant involvement, your mind may have trouble keeping clear or steady. It definitely won't always be easy sailing in your case, but at least it won't be boring. Given the opportunity, you will no doubt tend to weigh in on this, that, and any other topic you are inclined or disinclined to. In other words, you are totally into what you do and don't like. Aside from this sheer amount of likes and dislikes, what perhaps is more important is the balance between the inclinations you have and what it is you are disinclined toward. There will be a whole list of areas you are into or not into given below.

Are You a Yea or Naysayer?

64% Yea and 36% Nay

At any given time the planets moving through their orbits are naturally inclined to some planets, while disinclined to others. Their orbital planes dictate this. Much like when we reach a crossroad in a vehicle, we can look to the right or left down an avenue we are not traveling, so when a planet crosses the plane of another planet, they too share a common inclination for that time. Similarly, when a planet moves mostly out of plane with another planet, they are disinclined -disinclinations.

The sum total of all the inclinations add up to a positive approach (we are inclined or have affinities), while the total of our disinclinations point to just the reverse - what we are not inclined to do, what we don't like. Do we have more affinities or non-affinities, and if we do what are they? Overall, do we tend to say 'Yes' to life or 'No.'

There are several things to examine here, starting with: have you any inclinations or disinclinations in your chart at all? Are there more affinities or inclinations than disinclinations and, if so, are they many, few, or just about average and what does that mean for you? Let's take a look.

You Are Somewhat Positive

You do have more inclinations than disinclinations, so we have to put you in the 'positive' category when it comes to the way you approach life. But the margin is very narrow and you almost have as much disinclination as inclination. With you the glass is literally about half full. Still, all-in-all, you tip the scale toward being up and not down. You are more inclined than disinclined. Your likes outnumber your dislikes.

But with the balance being so close, we will want to look very carefully at each of your affinities and non-affinities to see how they stack up next to one another. An inclination can be toward something harmful, and vice versa. A disinclination toward something harmful can be counted as a good. Let's see what you have here.

Inclinations & Disinclinations

Your Inclinations and Disinclinations

Now you have a general idea of many inclinations and disinclinations make up your attitude, and whether that attitude is mostly positive or mostly negative, inclined or disinclined. Now let's look at each of your inclinations and disinclinations, one by one. These are listed in order of importance, which means that those near the top are much more precise and important for you to consider than those farther down the list. Check them out.

Freethinker

An unusual mind, unusual thoughts and ideas, and perhaps unconventional wordplay can be said to be earmarks of who you are. You love whatever gets your mind out of the box and into free space.

(Uranus Inclined to Mercury)

Very Good at Appraisal

Your mind naturally is filled with refined thoughts, and ideas, whether that be of the fine arts, poetry, literature - whatever is beautiful and has grace. You love to speak and communicate beautifully.

(Venus Inclined to Mercury)

Love of Power

Others already know what you will have to admit, that you love power, intrigue, and being in control, whether in politics, business, or what-have-you? Some love diamonds and rubies. You love change, transformation, and occasionally turning the applecart upside down.

(Pluto Inclined to Venus)

You, Yourself, and Power

You are a powerful one, that's for sure, and probably not without an explosion or two from time to time. You are at home with power and know how to use it. Control of one type or another is just natural to you.

(Pluto Inclined to Earth)

Drive for Power

It could be said that you find trouble easily, but what really is at issue here is your drive to change or transform things can often turn into an attempt to control or hang on to power. You may have to learn to tread more gently with your feelings.

(Pluto Inclined to Mars)

Disciplined Career

You may choose a highly disciplined career, one filled with hard work and a real organized approach to life. Your life path is serious business.

(Saturn Inclined to Jupiter)

Political Career

You may find that it is through your career that real change come about, change that is transformative and life-changing. Also choosing a way through life that requires real control or flirts with power, politics, and the like.

(Pluto Inclined to Jupiter)

Career More Conventional

You prefer a simple straight-forward career to one more unconventional. When it comes to your particular life path, you enjoy the straight and narrow and tend to avoid what is eccentric and unusual.

(Uranus Disinclined to Jupiter)

Career Not of Words or Ideas

You may not be an anti-intellectual, but you probably don't go out of your way to get involved mentally that often. Your career and expressing yourself in words and fancy language just don't mix.

(Mercury Disinclined to Jupiter)

Disciplined Love or Appraisal

When it comes to organization and generally being responsible, you naturally take a more refined approach. Rules, regulations, laws, and all of that legal-type stuff in your hands actually have a touch of beauty and fineness.

(Venus Inclined to Saturn)

The Iron Fist

When you rule, you do so with an iron fist, and it is a struggle for you to go gently into that good night, especially when it comes to power, politics, and bringing change to bear in the world. Easy does it.

(Pluto Inclined to Saturn)

Unorganized Spiritually

Your natural sense of hard work can't help but rail against the world of the creative imagination, not because these two are incompatible, but it is just how you feel.

(Neptune Disinclined to Saturn)

Conventional Discipline

Your hard-working ethic and natural sense of discipline follows a very conventional path, and while not very inventive, manages to get the job done. You may tend to view what is unconventional or eccentric with a cautious eye.

(Uranus Disinclined to Saturn)

Powerful Rebel

Your natural rebelliousness and love of the unconventional verges on the problematical, due to a tendency to resort to force and even a little coercion to see things done your way. You are inventive and perhaps even original, but a bully is a bully nevertheless.

(Pluto Inclined to Uranus)

Organized Independence

You are unconventional, even independent and non-conforming, but in a very organized and disciplined way, which is almost an oxymoron. In other words, your natural non-conventionality is very orderly, even regimented.

(Saturn Inclined to Uranus)

Like Imagination and the Spiritual

You tend to be deeply involved in all things spiritual, and imagination and thoughts of unity and togetherness are naturally just part of your makeup - who you are.

(Earth Inclined to Neptune)

Spiritual Ideas of No Interest

Spiritual matters or even excessive flights of the imagination leave you speechless, meaning you tend not to want to talk about these things. Or for that matter, you tend not to think about this area of life all that much.

(Mercury Disinclined to Neptune)

Inelegant Force and Control

You are anything but elegant when it comes to exercising power, putting on the pressure, or trying to control a situation. This is not your long suit. You tend to be heavy handed and lack grace when it comes to these matters.

(Venus Disinclined to Pluto)

Great Stable

Like a stone or part of the natural universe, discipline, hard work, and concentration are as much a part of you as waves on the ocean. You are a born worker.

(Saturn Inclined to I-Plane)

Stable Power

You are not one to mess with, at least not when it comes to holding, using, or abusing power. You are as natural in that area as sunlight in the daytime. Although others have the kind of control you enjoy, few have such an obvious mandate to use it.

(Pluto Inclined to I-Plane)

Unstable Words and Ideas

"Your wit and mind may not be as stable as you might wish and you may find thinking tough at times or feel that you are tilting at mental windmills from time to time."

(Mercury Disinclined to I-Plane)

Super Stability

In large part, your unconventionality and insistence on doing things differently or in a non-standard fashion gets you nowhere. This radical streak goes against the grain of conventionality and will bring you few rewards.

(Uranus Disinclined to I-Plane)

Personal Chakra Order

So far we have looked at the Interface points for your chart, planet by planet, starting with the most important and working down the tree. It remains for us now to look at the overall chakra tree itself to see which of the chakras receives the most activity by planetary and activation, since this points to areas of your life where you can expect to be most involved.

The seven chakras are usually displayed along a diagram of the human spine, starting from the Saturn or Muladhara Chakra and moving up the spinal column to the Crown Chakra at the top of the head. Seven are usually listed, but here we will be adding the outer planets plus the Equator of the Sun and the Invariable Plane of the solar system, although they are not traditional centers of energy. And we will list the chakras not in their traditional sequence, but with the most active for you listed first and moving downward from there.

Pluto: Control Center - 8 Contacts

Pluto (Control and Power)

Pluto is about power and transformation, power to force and the force of transforming ourselves and our lives. Pluto inclined to another planet may bring control by force and certainly power of one sort or another (including the abuse of it), while Pluto disinclined suggests the lack of force, not solving things with power or change.

Pluto somehow manages to skirt past our defenses and touch us deeply, to the very quick, and always wherever we are most sensitive. It can humble us in an instant, and bring on the hour's heartbreak, no matter how we may try to steel ourselves. For this reason, Pluto has been called the planet of transformation and real inner change, our inner alchemist. It is through Pluto moments that we identify with the greater life process itself, and in that experience, we cannot but change, and die to die whatever we have been thinking up to that moment, and are forced to take another look at things. Pluto can be harsh to the extreme, and is also associated with all kinds of force, and the more brutal kinds of truth. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

Saturn: Responsibility Chakra - 7 Contacts

Saturn or Responsibility (Muladhara Chakra)

Saturn presents the obstacle course through which we have to go through if we want to get past the present situation we find ourselves in. An inclination toward Saturn brings organization and definition (for good or ill), while a disinclination brings obstacles and barriers to progress.

Saturn is about the laws and limitations of this material world we all live in. Saturn indicates where we are bound to learn the narrowness that makes our way felt -- the walls that make homes possible. Saturn, the great divider, holds us together as much as it keeps us apart. In many ways, Saturn is said to be the great teacher, the planet that keeps us from getting carried away too far in one direction or another. It will always seek to limit and determine any thought, word or action. Saturn or Satan has been called the prince of the material world. Uranus or Insight Center - 6 Contacts

Uranus (Insight and Independence)

The planet Uranus, when inclined to another planet, brings a way out or through, often a break-through or a break-out of whatever binds us. When disinclined, Uranus can't figure any way out or beyond, as in no idea or insights at all.

Uranus is how each of us gets some independence from the routine of our everyday existence, how we break out, and are able to see things differently. It rules all manner of discovery, invention, and insight, in particular: finding new uses for old things. Uranus marches to the beat of a different drummer, and therefore rules all that is unusual, eccentric, and off the beaten paths. It goes against convention and the status quo, and favors difference and variety, whatever is unconventional. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

Mercury: Mental Chakra - 5 Contacts

Mercury or Mind (Ajna Chakra)

Mercury has to do with our mind and how we use it, as in thinking, writing, speaking, and communication in general of all sorts. Any planet at an Interface point to Mercury (inclined or disinclined) will be involving mental processes of one form or another. Here is the traditional description of Mercury.

Mercury is pure awareness, called 'Buddha' (Awareness) in Sanskrit, the light in our eyes, the ever-changing consciousness within us that moves from idea to idea. Therefore Mercury represents the Mind and all ideas, the thoughts we have, and mental processes, in general. Mercury rules not only our thoughts, but also how they travel, meaning all manner of communications, whether by phone, letter, email, spoken conversations - what have you? And finally, Mercury rules the wires, waves, cables, and connections that communications travel through to reach us. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

Venus: Love/Values Chakra - 4 Contacts

Venus or Love (Visuddha Chakra)

Venus is the first planet inside of Earth toward the Sun center, so it refers to something inner and inside us, like traditionally love and compassion, which translates pragmatically also to acquisition, appraisal, evaluation, and to all the finer things in life that we can measure, like beauty of all kinds.

Venus rules how we love or appreciate how we value things in our life, and therefore our values and sense of values. On the high end, Venus is compassion, the deepest form of appreciation, and on a more mundane level it rules how we appraise, access, and value things around us: a good dinner, a new car, and so on. And how we appreciate is also how we enjoy life, so Venus marks what we enjoy, and just how we like to have a good time. Venus rules our values and sense of appreciation. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- ☐ Love the Mind and Ideas
- ☐ Disciplined Love or Appraisal
- ☐ Inelegant Force and Control
- ☐ Elegant Force

Jupiter: Career Chakra - 4 Contacts

Jupiter or Career (Svadhithana Chakra)

Jupiter marks out our Life Path, our career, literally the way we go through life. Jupiter inclined to another planet always shows a way through or onward, the path through the obstacles, and a problem solved, while disinclinations point to dead ends and problems not-solved.

Jupiter, named 'Guru' in Sanskrit, is just that: our guru or guide through the thickets of life, our particular life path or vocation - career. Jupiter is how we succeed, the planet of success, and success here means simple succession or continuing, how we will be able to continue. Jupiter is said to be the key to Saturn, how each of us will find our way through the limitations and laws life lays on us. It is our personal dharma path, how we will solve the problems and obstacles that life brings. Jupiter is the way we go through life, our way to go. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- ☐ Great Problem Solver
- ☐ Political or Transformative Career
- ☐ Conventional Career
- ☐ Career Not of Words or Ideas

Stability: Invariable Plane - 4 Contacts

Invariable Plane (Stability Center)

The Invariable Plane of our solar system, like its name suggests, is a vast unvarying plane that passes through the center of gravity of the solar system and is independent of the mutual perturbations of the planets. It is called 'invariable' because it remains unaltered, regardless of any and all motions within the planetary system. It is a plane through the center of mass, perpendicular to the orbital angular-momentum factor. This factor is made up of the angular momentum arising from planetary orbital revolutions and from axial rotations.

As one planet in our system decreases its eccentricity and inclination (over very long time periods), one or more other orbits must at the same time be increasing their eccentricities and inclinations, whereby the total amount of eccentricity and inclination remains constant. Jupiter and Saturn largely determine the invariable plane, since they are the largest and heaviest of the planets. Needless to say, this is a very consistent (invariable) factor and points to extreme stability. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- ☐ Great Stable
- ☐ Stable Power
- ☐ Unstable Words and Ideas
- ☐ Super Stability

Neptune: Imagination Center - 3 Contacts

Neptune (Imagination and Spirituality)

Neptune is all about making things whole or one, unity, and an inclination of a planet to Neptune suggests imagination, spiritual sense, and all that is other-worldly in music, art, film, poetry, and what-have-you? A planet disinclined to Neptune points to a lack of imagination and a spiritual desert.

Neptune is the planet of solution, endlessly solving all differences, and finding the unity in life, rather than what separates. It is said to be the higher octave of Venus, and represents compassion and deep acceptance - universal love and union. 'The dewdrop slips into the shining sea.' Neptune always sees the whole picture, the ideal as it should be and could be, rather than how it may be at the present. It is the planet of the imagination and inspiration, and thus relates to film, music, and the arts - wherever the mind can soar. It also rules all things spiritual, whether formal religion or personal dreams and beliefs - the mystic. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- ☐ Spiritually Unorganized
- ☐ Like Imagination and the Spiritual
- ☐ Spiritual Ideas of No Interest

Earth: Heart Chakra - 2 Contacts

Earth or Heart Center (Anahata Chakra)

Earth, the planet you live on, is all about you, yourself, and all that goes along with that concept. An inclination or disinclination involving Earth is far more important (again to 'you') than if it was to involve any two other planets. So, any planets that are inclined or disinclined to Earth should be carefully considered.

The Earth/Sun represents your self or identity, what you look forward to or hope to become in the future, and that which you respect or use as a reference point. In other words, the Sun represents all the changes that still are ahead for you, all of yourself that you have not yet experienced. The Sun, in one's life, is therefore at first usually someone you look up to and respect, often a mentor, teacher, older person - authorities or those more experienced in life - the essence of your future. And as time passes, we move into the Sun and become the Sun ourselves. It burns brightly before us, showing us ourselves as we can or will be, but also too hot for us to endure just at the moment. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- ☐ Like Imagination and the Spiritual
- ☐ Self-Transformation is You

Mars: Ambition Chakra - 1 Contact

Mars or Ambition (Manipura Chakra)

Mars is the first planet outside Earth's orbit, so it has to do with reaching out and externalization, as in aggression in action. Planets inclined to Mars get an extra push or urge-to connected to them, while Mars disinclined either lacks energy or rubs up against something too hard.

Mars represents ambition, our inner motivation and drive, what urges us on, and keeps us moving forward. Mars is the all about meaning, what things mean, what moves us, and emotional energy and push, in general. Mars carries us beyond ourselves and out into the word, driving us up against things. Mars is also outward aggression and moves us into competition and combat. Ultimately, Mars energy is our search for meaning in our lives, and a deep urge for peace and unity. Mars is sexual energy that ends in marriage, union, and yoga. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

☐ Perhaps Too Forceful

Solar Equator: Sun Center - No Contacts

Solar Equator (Sahasrara or Crown Chakra)

In daily-astrology columns in the newspapers we refer to our 'Sun Sign', which is really not about the sun as much as it is about the Earth's relation to the sun, and thus it tells us something about ourselves, who we are, rather than about the Sun itself. When we speak of the Equator of the Sun, we are referring to the Sun itself, the source of all light, warmth, life, and so on. Here the Sun is our deepest self or source, and is always referred to the Crown Chakra, the very highest chakra.

The Equator of the Sun (solar equator) like the Earth's equator, is a fundamental reference plane to which we could refer all planetary motion. The inclination (angle) of the solar equator to the ecliptic (zodiac) is 7°15' and the longitude of the ascending node to the ecliptic of 1950 is 15°04' of the tropical sign Gemini. Just as the plane of the Moon determines key events like the eclipses, so the equator of the sun is an important reference point in the solar system. Where that equatorial plane intersects with the plane of the earth's and other planets orbits is something worth noting and considering. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here,

About Interface Points

About the Interface Points

I have been studying and working in astrology for some fifty years now and I was still surprised at the accuracy and depth of the Life Chakras report. Perhaps it is because this report is based on the orientation of the entire solar system to itself, the precise relation of each planetary orbit to the others, their orbital attitude one to another. Like a jewel set in space, all of these angles and attitudes point out how we down on Earth get along or don't get along with our selves and with others. 'Life Chakras' is literally a perfect reflection of the gem-like nature of the solar system. When I began reading the reports of my family I was shocked at how candid they were. My first reaction was that I should not let anyone read these, but this gave way to an appreciation for the information they reveal about what we care and don't care for, our inner attitudes - likes and dislikes.

The diagram below (to scale) shows Mars and Jupiter (each in their orbit) at maximum disinclination to one another. In other words, they are as far from inclination (being in the same plane) as possible. The inclination points are where the two planes (blue and red) intersect, shown by the symbols for ascending and descending nodes. The Earth is also shown. Now imagine all nine planets, each with a different attitude or inclination. This is what we are mapping and interpreting here.

Getting the Most From This Report

I wrote a whole book on this subject back in the early 1970s, now republished in paperback on Amazon.com, called 'Interface: Planetary Nodes.' Let me see if I can give you an idea of why the concept is interesting and perhaps explain why it is so powerful.

Each planet in our solar system orbits the Sun in what is called its orbital plane, but these planes are at different inclinations to one another. They don't share a common plane. In other words, the planetary orbital planes are not naturally inclined one to another, but they do intersect, and every so often a planet will reach an intersection with another planet and simultaneously be in its own plane as well as in the plane of the other planet. It is much like when driving we reach an intersection and can look right or left down a street other than we are actually traveling on.

For example, Mercury may reach the intersection of its orbital plane with that of the planet Mars, and at that time it is in or inclined to the Martian plane. Mercury is the activator and Mars is the plane activated. Both planets are in the same plane, although Mercury is influencing Mars by moving into its plane. Of course, this is all based on the orbits of the planets around the sun-center. To show how interesting this can get, consider the chart of Howard Hughes, who was one of the world's richest men. Hughes had Jupiter in the plane of Venus in his natal chart and of course Venus-Jupiter combinations spell money in traditional astrological interpretation. There is more. Hughes also had Venus (simultaneously) to the plane of Jupiter. Each planet was at the Interface point of the other. That particular combination was one of the signs that first alerted me to the power of the Interface technique. Just think about it, the world's richest man and Venus and Jupiter in reciprocal relation to one another.

The Interface points are the reduction of the complete planetary structure of our solar system to a single set of points (inclinations and their square or non-inclined points) that perfectly represents or reflect that structure, literally a cosmic diamond or gem. These points shine not only in the solar system, but within our own person and life. Lest we forget, the Sun is the source of all light, warmth, and life for us and it shines not only on us from above but, also from within us at the heart or soul level. There is no systematic set of points I am aware of as crucial or fundamental as these orbital elements.

I hope you enjoy your Life Chakra report and find this unique perspective as interesting as I do.
