Introduction

Your astrological horoscope (natal chart) at birth is an important key to your personality and character, but your natal chart is not the last word about you. As time moves on after the moment of your birth, the Sun, Moon, and planets continue to circle through the heavens forming ever-changing kaleidoscopic patterns in relation to your own birth chart, bringing out or obscuring this or that part of you.

It can be useful to know how these ongoing planetary patterns relate to your life, and that is what this report is about. Here we calculate the primary astrological changes in your chart and interpret them so that you can see at a glance what is happening at any given time. Your events are arranged and interpreted chronologically, by well-known astrologer Michael Erlewine, and each event includes date and time, keywords, astrological indicator, and an astro-tarot card. We hope you enjoy your forecast.

In the tradition of astrology the planets have always been interpreted separately from the Sun and the Moon, which are called "The Lights," and for good reason. They literally light up our life and their combined interaction describes the essence of what is happening to us at any given time. Although called "The Moon Report," any mention of the Moon automatically involves the Sun, and of course, our Earth. These three, the Sun, Moon, and Earth, in their endless interaction are perhaps the single most important factor to observe in astrology.

The ever-changing relationship in the sky between the Sun and the Moon is perhaps most obvious at the Full Moon, but as we know, it is going on all the time. This report tracks the Sun-Moon relationship as it relates to your particular natal horoscope and birth chart, detailing all of the major events that take place in the current month for a specific life area and planet.

The Moon has always represented the 'mother', meaning anything that nurtures or cares for us, our support system, however that is made up. It also indicates our emotional makeup, how we feel about things, and the nostalgia of the past - where we came from.

On the other hand, the Sun represents the 'father' principle and the future, where we are heading toward and, to some degree, the means we have to get there. The Sun burns brightly, while the Moon is cool and comforting. The two together mark the endless play between the past and the future, and we here on Earth, are caught right in the middle, that is: the present.

About the Career and Life Path Forecast

Your Jupiter Forecast

Jupiter is the planet of career and life direction. One of the ancient Sanskrit words for Jupiter is 'guru' and Jupiter is literally the guide as well as the path we take through life. The planet Jupiter is always our way through whatever obstacles or circumstances we are currently faced with, including the problems, which usually involves the laws of this universe and the planet Saturn. This is why lawyers are connected to Jupiter. They handle the law, and show us (at times) how to get around the law.

This forecast is about how the planet Jupiter figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. It will have much to say about your career and the best path through life for you to tread at this time. We hope you enjoy it.

Jupiter in your Natal Chart

Jupiter in your Natal Chart

Before we present your Jupiter forecast for the coming months, let's review how the planet Jupiter is configured in your natal or birth chart. What follows is an interpretation of Jupiter at your birth to the Sun, Moon, and other planets. It should help to give you a general idea of how you related to matters of career and a life path. Here goes:

Jupiter
Quincunx
Moon
(Waxing)
164°42'

Communicating

Finish it! You like to complete and connect up plans for success with projects that are already in progress, in particular as relates to working with the public, with younger people, with your own past, and/or support network. You explore the details, get into the fine points, and are better at finishing things than starting something new.

Jupiter
Sesquiquadrate
Sun
(Waning)
225°52'

Letting It Come

Awareness of what you have accomplished (success) gives you pride, and a handle on just how successful things can be. Also, you show pride and ownership in what you have done, and enjoy telling others about it. The only rub is that, if you look carefully, you may find that it is all just a little to slick, and you may find that you enjoy something more engaging, something that requires more taking, than giving, such as listening, being receptive.

Jupiter
Trine
Mercury
(Waning)
241°31'

Librarian

You always find it easy to get a handle on where you are with career plans and ideas, and education or mental advancement, in general. This could be a confidence builder, bringing a sense of accomplishment, and you may wish to share this with others through teaching or communication.

Jupiter
Square
Venus
(Waning)
270°46'

Public Success

You may have somewhat expansive and easier times, ones that bring a chance to evaluate how you feel about your career situation, the path you have taken. You may find yourself tending to draw conclusions in these areas of a more conservative nature. Probably these are not times to take on extra projects or start new ones. More likely, you will find yourself generally taking stock, and even closing down a few areas that are not productive.

Jupiter
Sesquiquadrate
Mars
(Waning)
228°01'

Training Others

You naturally feel successful and even have a growing sense of pride in your career accomplishments, and for good reason. This may include teaching or communicating this to others, as you sense greater control over yourself and your environment. To make this happen may require skill at listening and great receptivity on your part.

Jupiter
Semisextile
Saturn
(Waxing)
015°42'

Legal Plans

When it comes to career and the path to success, you instinctively know that only the most carefully crafted plans, strong strategies, should be pushed forward, ones that follow the rules or laws, and you like to fashion solid plans for the future.

Jupiter
Square
Uranus
(Waning)
278°42'

Independent Partners

You find yourself taking a critical examination of career plans and new ideas related to success or otherwise solving problems. You can innovate and come up with ways to compromise and serve business or career interests. You are economical.

Jupiter
Semisextile
Neptune
(Waning)
331°28'

Key Essence

You are good at squirreling away nuggets of inspiration and imagination relating to career and success. You like to reduce ideas of acceptance and inspiration in these areas to their essence.

Jupiter
Semisextile
Pluto
(Waxing)
028°28'

Strategic Ideas

Your career plans, the path to success, which for you could mean to power and/or politics, inevitably are worked into plans that you intend to carry out.

Jupiter Goes Retrograde

Jupiter Stationary Retrograde (Wax) Transit to Transit

This is a fairly obvious event, one earmarked by the tendency to lose one's direction for a few days. Whatever you have been pushing forward, whatever idea you had of getting some place and building a future can just dry up and disappear, leaving you wondering what you are doing and where it was you were trying to get to, thus: a loss of direction. This will remedy itself in a short while, but generally what happens is an about face direction-wise. Where before you were wending your way into an imagined future, now you will forget about that and find yourself becoming more cautious and conservative when it comes to career and life direction.
