Introduction

The Relocation Chart

A relocation chart is simply an ordinary natal horoscope moved to a different location. It's a chart cast for the same cosmic instant of birth, but looked at from another location, as if the birth happened there. The planets' sign positions all remain the same, but they will appear in different houses at different locations, thus altering their strengths and areas of influence. So, if you were born in New York, for instance, and then moved to Paris, your relocation chart would have any first house planets shifted about 90 degrees clockwise into the tenth house; tenth house planets would be shifted into the seventh house, and so on, thus giving your natal chart a whole new look for your Parisian adventures. In fact, if it turns out to be a significant improvement, you might even want to move there. Or, perhaps you might just want to visit when you are doing the kind of things that your Paris relocation chart favors -- work, play, health, creativity -- depending on your planets' relocated house positions.

The Relocation Map

Although any one relocation chart opens up new possibilities for you when you travel, if you put a lot of them together and trace them on a map you get a set of marked-out roads of opportunity that stretch around the world, each of which will add strength and emphasis to specific parts of your personality and potential. There is a geographical ribbon running many thousands of miles around the globe, every mile of which gives you Mars rising, adding to your energy and individual power whenever you are on it. Another gives you the Sun rising, another, the Moon, and so on. Around the other side of the earth are similar routes on which your planets are always exactly setting, on the cusp of the seventh house. Similarly, there are north-south pathways each 12,000 miles long where individual planets are on your Midheaven or IC if you go to them. Together, they make up an often-intersecting set of personal highways, a grid of 40 planetary lines that mark out your chart's strongest places for relocation, where one or more natal planets are on the angles.

And if that's not enough potential roads to travel on, there are a total of 180 global lines that depict where your 45 major planetary midpoints are on the angles, adding a subtle substructure to your planetary potential. Altogether, they depict your own personal World Wide Web of highways and byways that add special strengths to your chart and promise new heightened adventure and return for simply taking a trip. You'll find that there's hardly a place on the planet you can go without discovering a new slant on life, a new take on what you already have working inside you.

Windows Of Opportunity

Finally, as your personal progressions and transits move along and affect your natal chart, these same changes will be touching your relocation chart as well, but often quite differently. This will mean that certain parts of the world open up as unique windows of opportunity for a limited, but golden time. A look at these will tell you not only where to travel, but when is the optimum time to be there as well. Find out the best of where and when, and then book your ticket, with the stars on your side.

The Armchair Traveler

You don't have to actually show up at a strong relocation place to have it affect you. You may well find that areas where you have locality planets, midpoints, transits, or progressions on the angles have a way of waltzing into your life unannounced, or that you'll find yourself dealing with people who live there in a way that is described by your chart in that locality. In the era of electronic world travel, you may not need to go out of your door to find your different relocation charts working for you.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Sagittarius

Open covenants, openly arrived at should be your stock in trade here -- at least, that's what will go over the best and make you welcomed into any situation. Be forthright and honest, or at least play that part, and you'll fit right in. Just be aware that some may try to slip one past you, so smack them if they try it.

Midheaven in Virgo

If you make others think you've got it all under control, your ability to show how sincere you are is strengthened. In other words, if you know it, show it -- and you can even fudge that a little and chances are no one will guess. Ultimately, it's choosing the right situations to follow up on that gets you your rep here.

Natal Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Natal Uranus Sq MC (Strong)

Who knows what they think about you around here? Chances are, you don't -- and you may be surprised when you find out. For sure, you will have to do some fine-tuning of your reputation to separate truth from fancy -- and in the process you may become rather more inventive in reinventing others' inventions about you.

Uranus in Fifth House

If there are new and unusual sources of playful and creative things to do here, you are likely the one to uncover them. Fun and adventure are synonymous, and the definitions of strange and attractive blend borders. The Muse is fickle, inspiration is touch and go, so be ready to hop on for a ride the moment it's offered.

Natal Jupiter Ssx IC (Strong)

It's easy for people here to think of you as the latest and greatest, as that will be what they naturally hear first. Your job is not to get in the way of that rumor and do all you can to confirm it. Make the most of free good press and then add a little bit to keep the ball rolling and you're set.

Jupiter in Third House

You inject a lot of optimism into the air here, and you're likely to be on the phone a lot passing out the good word. You can also encounter a lot of hot air doing just that, so encourage expansion but try to keep out the riff-raff. All talk and no action comes easy, but you always have to start somewhere, and that somewhere can be you.

Natal Uranus Ssx DS (Medium)

This can be a land of discovery for you if you ease yourself into it on a personal basis. Just show up and look for something different, and the chances are you'll find it. It's partly about what's there, and partly about the fresh pair of eyes you bring to the situation that gives everybody a new look.

Natal Pluto Sxt IC (Medium)

Your reputation is protected here in ways it probably shouldn't be, so you can get away with more than you ought without suffering the criticism others might. It's simply that you appear to have more power and support than you know you actually do, but if you play along with the part, it actually becomes real.

Pluto in Second House

Money is power here, at least as far as you are concerned. When you have to get your way, play the cash card, but only as a last resort. If you do it too often, you'll drive up the price and run out of resources. Also, possessions can become too much of a driving force and overshadow the other benefits of the place.

Natal Mercury Ssq MC (Medium)

Mixed messages may seem like the norm here, and you should always have an eye out for spin control in case someone has misinterpreted something they've heard about you. It's not necessarily hurtful, just confusing, so take the time for that second and third press release until you've got everybody on your page.

Mercury in Eighth House

A penchant for puzzles and the ability to solve them is likely to come upon you here, like there is something in the landscape that challenges the mind and asks you to find the key. You could be looking for new resources, which will come not in physical form but in a whole new concept of how you put it into words, a concept that is, in fact, very old.

Natal Saturn Ssq IC (Medium)

Watch what people are saying about you around here, as it may not be as complimentary as you deserve and it may also not be true. A little time fine-tuning your spin cycle and getting doubters on board won't be wasted and may have to be repeated before you have them counting on you the way they should.

Saturn in Second House

You'll likely have to make more out of less, as financial support and resources for you here may be in short supply. What you do get will tend to last, but you won't get enough to waste. Economic habits acquired here, however, will benefit you greatly when you travel elsewhere, so you may have a lot to benefit from in the long run.

Natal Mars Ssx MC (Medium)

Compliments on your accomplishments and your general energy level of getting things done can be expected without your having to solicit them. That can be a career boost, as you're not swimming against the current, but have the public tide behind you. Living up to expectations and self-promotion come more naturally here.

Mars in Ninth House

There's plenty of inner and outer space here to absorb your energies, and you may find you have to pace yourself to avoid getting eaten up by all the possibilities. Ability increases with exercise and familiarity, but it helps to seek help from people who have already passed this way before. Welcome, traveler, if you make your own bed.

Natal Sun Ssq MC (Medium)

What they say about you here may not accurately reflect the person you really are inside, so some extra steps to get out the PR would probably be a good idea. If they don't get the message the first time, do a follow-up until the real you is what's being represented to the general public. Speak up for yourself, then do it again.

Sun in Eighth House

There's something in the landscape here for you, some kind of buried treasure you may have to dig around for. There's a certain appeal of the mysterious, something deeper you can strive for if you put your attention to it. Somebody owes you something here -- and that somebody might be your inner self.

Natal Venus Sqr AS (Medium)

Getting what you want around here may take more than one try, and that's not because no one wants to please. It's just that it's sometimes unclear to others what you want or what image you are trying to project to get it. A mirror is your best friend, and let your friends be your mirror until you get it right.

Venus in Ninth House

You could open new vistas of desire here -- new possibilities of enjoyment and reward are options here that might not occur to you elsewhere. Take it one mouthful at a time, however, as there may be more than you can digest at one sitting. Best of all, read the menu through completely, then proceed....

Natal Neptune Sqr DS (Medium)

Mistaken identity can be a recurring problem here -- whether it's someone else mistaking you for another or you finding it difficult to see yourself as others see you. In the process, you may have to do a little song and dance to clarify things. The opportunity to deceive is great, but the long-term chances of getting away with it aren't.

Neptune in Third House

People will say anything here (and you reply in kind), but getting them to be specific and make airy conversation turn to concrete results may be a bit dicey. It's not necessarily insincerity or dishonesty that's to blame, just good intentions without solid foundations. When needs are specific, insist on clarity -- otherwise be happy to shoot the breeze.

Natal Moon Tri MC (Medium)

The way you express your feelings here just naturally seems to give you a boost and good press in general. You can achieve a reputation for being candid and having nothing to hide, because it's the truth -- you don't have to second-guess yourself here, so the first thing that comes out of your mouth works just fine.

Moon in Sixth House

You have a lot to learn, do, and maybe even teach here if you have the time and energy to do so. It could be a great place to discover new ways of achieving everyday goals that will invigorate instead of tire, inspiring efficiency and conserving energy. When you get in tune with new habits, they take you along for the ride.

Natal Neptune On IC (Mild)

This is a place where dreams could come true, fantasies are fulfilled, or tricks of illusion fool the eye. Whatever your inner vision, circumstances will tend to rise to support it, so this could be your own virtual reality if you're both creative and careful. The possibilities here range from painting your own personal masterpiece to painting yourself into a corner, so plan and control your script while you keep one foot in the dream world. Well-intended yourself, you will attract more of the same, but remember where the road paved with good intentions can lead and read the signs carefully. Paradise and perdition can be found on the same block, so make sure you've got the right address before you step inside the door. On all accounts, this locality will bring out the thoughtful and dreamy in you, and one good sunset may become the memory of a lifetime if you play your cards right. Depend on yourself, not the locals, because you will be the one directing the play, or no one will.

Natal Moon Ssx DS (Mild)

Feelings find outlet more effortlessly here -- not necessarily by a direct route, but sometimes by an open door that invites you to walk through. You're more naturally at ease with the way you relate to the environment, so the rest flows along without having to think about it or analyze your emotions.

Natal Saturn Tri DS (Mild)

You appear to carry a little more weight here than you might, and inaction will often appear to be the voice of experience and patience rather than indecision. Once you pick up and get going, you've got a lot on your side, so leave drag racing to others who will look nervous and uncertain by comparison.

Natal Sun Tri AS (Mild)

You don't have to strain to throw your weight around here -- just let it flow from the heart and you'll seem like you've got it all going for you. What you look like supports who you really are inside, so all you have to do is be yourself and everything will fall into place. Play it like you like it.

Natal Mercury Sqq AS (Mild)

Talk is not cheap here, it's expensive. You may have to say the same things several different ways to get your message across. It's just that they think they hear one thing from you, while you're actually saying something else. It will eventually get cleared up, but expect to have to repeat and clarify yourself.

Natal Pluto Sqq DS (Mild)

Situations have a way of forcing themselves on you here, and you on them. It can seem easier to push and shove than work things out, but when that happens, it all just escalates and nothing gets done. Knowing when to back off, and whom to back off from, are the learning challenges here so you don't waste time in needless struggle.

Paran Latitude LinesMoon-Sun Latitude Line at 27N56'45"

There's a central pull to this place that could have you orbiting it forever, or feeling you ought to. It's as if your feet are always on the ground, or at least your heart is, and that destiny has a hand in what happens to you here. Don't be surprised to meet new people you just know are old family, as if you've got something owed to you here and maybe some old debts to repay as well. Call it crazy, call it karmic, but it comes calling no matter what your approach, so don't feel you can just dip in and move on. There's more gravity for you here than you may know, so be ready to take and experience actions with far consequences.

Your heart may grow two sizes here, or at least it may certainly seem like it. The ability to express your feelings and become emotionally involved is seriously tweaked, perhaps to the extent of overdosing yourself on happiness. That same inclination can push you a bridge too far through sheer optimism, so make sure you've always got a dose of reality handy to remind yourself of your limits and the capacity of those around you here. Ride your positive approach to wherever it can take you, but understand that it's OK to take a breather now and then. You're only human -- but then, that's the joy of it, too.

C*C*G Section

Transits to Angles

Location charts respond to transits very much like your natal chart. Although Jupiter, for instance, may not be transiting your natal Ascendant right now, it is transiting your relocated Ascendant somewhere, and that somewhere is likely where you'll easily get a lot of extra attention and enhanced personal prospects if you go there or start doing business with people there. The same goes for the rest of the planets, so you can travel to seek or to escape their transits at the place of your choice.

Progressions to Angles

Although you can't escape your natal progressions, you can go experience them someplace else, particularly where a favorable progressed planet relocates right on an angle and thus gets extra emphasis. As with transits, your progressed relocation paths will tell you where it's happening according to the nature of each planet. Being that they are progressions rather than transits, the effect will be more internal than external, but noticeable all the same.

C*C*G Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Transit Neptune On IC (Strong)

You may have mixed feelings about this place right now, because its real relationship to you is not clear. In one sense it feels like home, or a place you could certainly learn to call home. In another, it is very elusive and it can be hard to get your feet on the ground here. Go for the hopeful feelings, but keep a strong link to where you were before.

Transit Saturn Sqr DS (Strong)

You may have a bit of an uphill struggle here for the next year or so, as people will be more demanding and less satisfied than usual and it will be up to you to fill the disappointment gap. If you put out and don't ask for or expect immediate reward, it's an investment. Don't look for short-term satisfaction.

Progressed Venus Sqr AS (Strong)

You can't get what you want here this year if you're telling people you want something else. Getting your needs sorted out and then projecting them accurately is the challenge. The trick is -- if you look too desirous, you won't be desirable. And, if it looks like you don't care, nobody else will. The solution lies between the two.

Transit Pluto Sq DS (Strong)

Expect several years here when trust may be an issue and pressure may seem the only way of getting your way. You're best off avoiding confrontations, as they will only lead to complications, so find a negotiated way out whenever possible. But remember, it's up to you -- blind faith in a positive outcome won't bring one.

Progressed Sun Ssq MC (Strong)

You may have some difficulty identifying with your own accomplishments here this year, and your newest and most personally held inner goals may be at odds with what went before. It's simply that you have ever-growing intentions and don't mean to be held back by the past. You can do both, just make room for yourself then and now.

Progressed Moon Sqr MC (Strong)

A few months of disconnect from your public image here means you should probably get someone else to promote you for the moment, as the spirit doesn't move you to wave your own flag very effectively. It's not that you're not proud of what you do, just a little defocused as you gather your energies for the next step.

Progressed Mercury Tri AS (Strong)

You'll feel very on-message here this year, but without having to make a big deal about it. Words just flow more smoothly out of your mouth and your brain is naturally in gear without having to pump the clutch. Body language does a lot to get the point across, and you may not even know it's happening unless you catch yourself on video.

Progressed Mercury Ssq MC (Medium)

If you can't put your accomplishments into words for people here to understand, who can? That's your challenge this year, as you find the ability to describe what it is you do so well challenged by your own growth and change in direction. It's all about integrating what you're doing with what you've done -- and then expressing it clearly.

Progressed Sun Tri AS (Medium)

Stepping forward with confidence here comes easily for at least a year or so, as your self-image and your actual appearance link up nicely and you don't need extra makeup to look like you're in tune with yourself. You can concentrate on making accomplishments, as the inner wherewithal needs no attention.

Transit Pluto Sxt IC (Medium)

You've got a rep here of being able to pull people through impossible situations, even if you've never actually done that. That can be a challenge, sometimes, but it's the situation that actually does the work while you ride on top of it, so why not take some of the credit and add it to your resume for a few years?

Transit Jupiter Tri MC (Medium)

Goings-on behind the scenes here work well in your favor and support your accomplishments in ways you may not suspect this year. You will find that you can get a lot done on the ground based on your reputation alone if you associate yourself with the latest local developments. If it's happening, let yourself in on it.

Transit Uranus Ssx DS (Medium)

You can afford to push the envelope here for a year or two, because it won't really look like you're doing it. Being leading edge is just going along with the crowd you'll fall in with, so it won't seem so risky. Lots of interesting discoveries and engaging new contacts are available, so don't be shy.

Progressed Mars Ssx MC (Medium)

This marks several years of confident pulling behind your goals and accomplishments, stroking evenly with your oars to race ahead of the pack. You can make great progress here because you're in tune with what you've done and what you yet want to do, and one naturally boosts the other.

Transit Uranus Tri MC (Mild)

Your reputation as an innovator here is strong for a couple of years, so go ahead and make some moves, even if you haven't done so before. It will only fill out expectations and set you a step ahead on your career track. Look for support in unlikely places and when it comes, don't turn it down -- explore and invest it.

Transit Jupiter Ssx DS (Mild)

This locality can provide you with particularly strong support of a very positive nature this year -- especially in areas where you want to be part of new and cutting-edge operations. In general, the latest that's going on here will tend to welcome you to join in, as it looks like you fit right into the picture.
