Introduction

The Relationship Chart

One and one make more than two, and when two people get together a third party emerges: the couple. As a couple, a team, a dynamic duo, you both become part of something larger that can give you greater power and potential than either has alone. As the two of you become one, a totally new horoscope emerges, called the relationship chart, which describes what you have become by linking up, what your special, mutual universe looks like from inside and out. It may be very different than either of you alone, or it may just reinforce you both, but it is what you are together, so embrace it. When you move to a new location, you modify that chart, and your image together and what you can do with it may change significantly. As with your individual charts, you have an inside that doesn't change with a move and an outside that changes with locality. To see if you have the best possible fit in this new place, here's a look at both.

The relationship chart for a couple is calculated in much the same way as a regular birth chart, only using the midpoint in time between the two birth dates, and the midpoint in space between the two birthplaces. When a relationship chart is relocated in Horizons, it keeps its own angles rather than using the angles of the relocated natal chart (as is done for other chart types).

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Cancer

Your new image here is upfront, close, and personal -- which can seem reassuring and caring to some and quite invasive and threatening to others. You'll seem more attuned to the feelings of others, but once you're in the door, be prepared to take responsibility for the space you have invaded. On the opposite side, you yourselves may be a bit more touchy than you think you are.

Midheaven in Pisces

You may find yourselves misread here, both to your advantage and disadvantage. You'll get credit for things you had nothing to do with, and some of your pet projects may get entirely missed. That's helped along by the fact that you can talk knowledgeably about any of it, so why shouldn't people believe you?

Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Relationship Moon On AS (Strong)

Your emotions come right to the surface here, and your frankness in dealing with personal issues can work for you when you're reaching out together. However, for some you may be a little too up-front, so be sure you take notice of others' privacy sensitivities so you don't bare all where it may not be appreciated.

Moon in Twelfth House

However outwardly sunny the atmosphere here, you'll find a tendency to be drawn toward emotional problems that might not demand your attention elsewhere. Thus, there can be storm clouds here that are yours alone, so you might keep your relocation options open if the inner skies start to darken. Don't paint yourselves into a corner here.

Relationship Uranus Tri IC (Strong)

Your ability to gracefully upset the applecart here can win you both applause and a fan base. By showing that the new approaches you harbingers work so well in your own lives, others will have nothing but praise and willingness to try them out, too. It's not about talk, but about action and hands-on change.

Uranus in Eleventh House

You'll likely attract, and be attracted to, a small but unique crowd of individualists here that you might have earlier thought to be quite off your beaten path. The fact is, it's all different here, and so are you and what you are interested in holding close to you. It's about the spark in the heart.

Relationship Mercury Sqr DS (Strong)

Talk and action can get in each other's way when you get under way together, and it can be easy to step on each other's toes in an attempt to make yourselves perfectly clear. If you don't get it right on the first couple of tries, move on to the next subject, as throwing good words after bad wastes everybody's time.

Mercury in Fourth House

You can get to the root of the matter here, at least you think you can. You'll likely find a lot of focus on the fundamentals of life, whether it's basic living conditions or heartfelt beliefs about where you come from. Life and its lineage are a constant fascination, probably because of unique clues you pick up here.

Relationship Jupiter Tri AS (Medium)

You are boosted by confidence here, coming from an enlarged sense of creativity and a broader understanding of what the world is all about. Perhaps it's just that travel widens the outlook and enlightens the mind, but you can feel freed of a lot of hometown myopia here, like you can suddenly see the forest and not just the trees.

Jupiter in Ninth House

The sky's the limit here, at least as far as you can conceive it when you're working together. That doesn't mean every dream will come true, but it will be a good starting place for new plans, new directions, bigger and more enthusiastic prospects. That may not be true for each, but it's the chemistry when you're together in this landscape.

Relationship Mars On IC (Mild)

You'll probably be inclined to put a lot of energy into what you do at home here, or in building one if that's your intention. In some sort of fashion, it's about laying down mutual roots together and becoming closer thanks to what you've achieved together. It's investment of the hands-on variety.

Mars in Fourth House

Laying down roots can get very physical here, even though you may not intend to do that at first. Somehow the earth calls to the both of you and why not spend some time and effort answering? Your immediate home and surroundings will take up a lot of energy here, but your rewards will be in proportion to what you spend.

Relationship Neptune On MC (Mild)

Chances are whatever they are saying about you two here is totally made up or off-base. That doesn't mean it's bad, just not on the mark. You may have to struggle to get out the real news of what you do, or you can just take what's out there and bend it to your advantage. In the end, you're a mystery.

Neptune in Tenth House

People here may never exactly understand just what the two of you do for a living, even if you explain it to them. Here you have a certain mystery about you that may happen whatever you do to dispel it. Best to use it and keep them guessing. If you want to juggle several careers at a time, this is probably a good place for it.

Relationship Sun On IC (Mild)

If you could stay at home tending to your own important, inner business here, you would -- which may impact on your reasons to come here. Together you're more likely to sit on your winnings than go out and explore, so if you can function here out of the confines of your own castle, it will be perfect. Venturing out may be an effort.

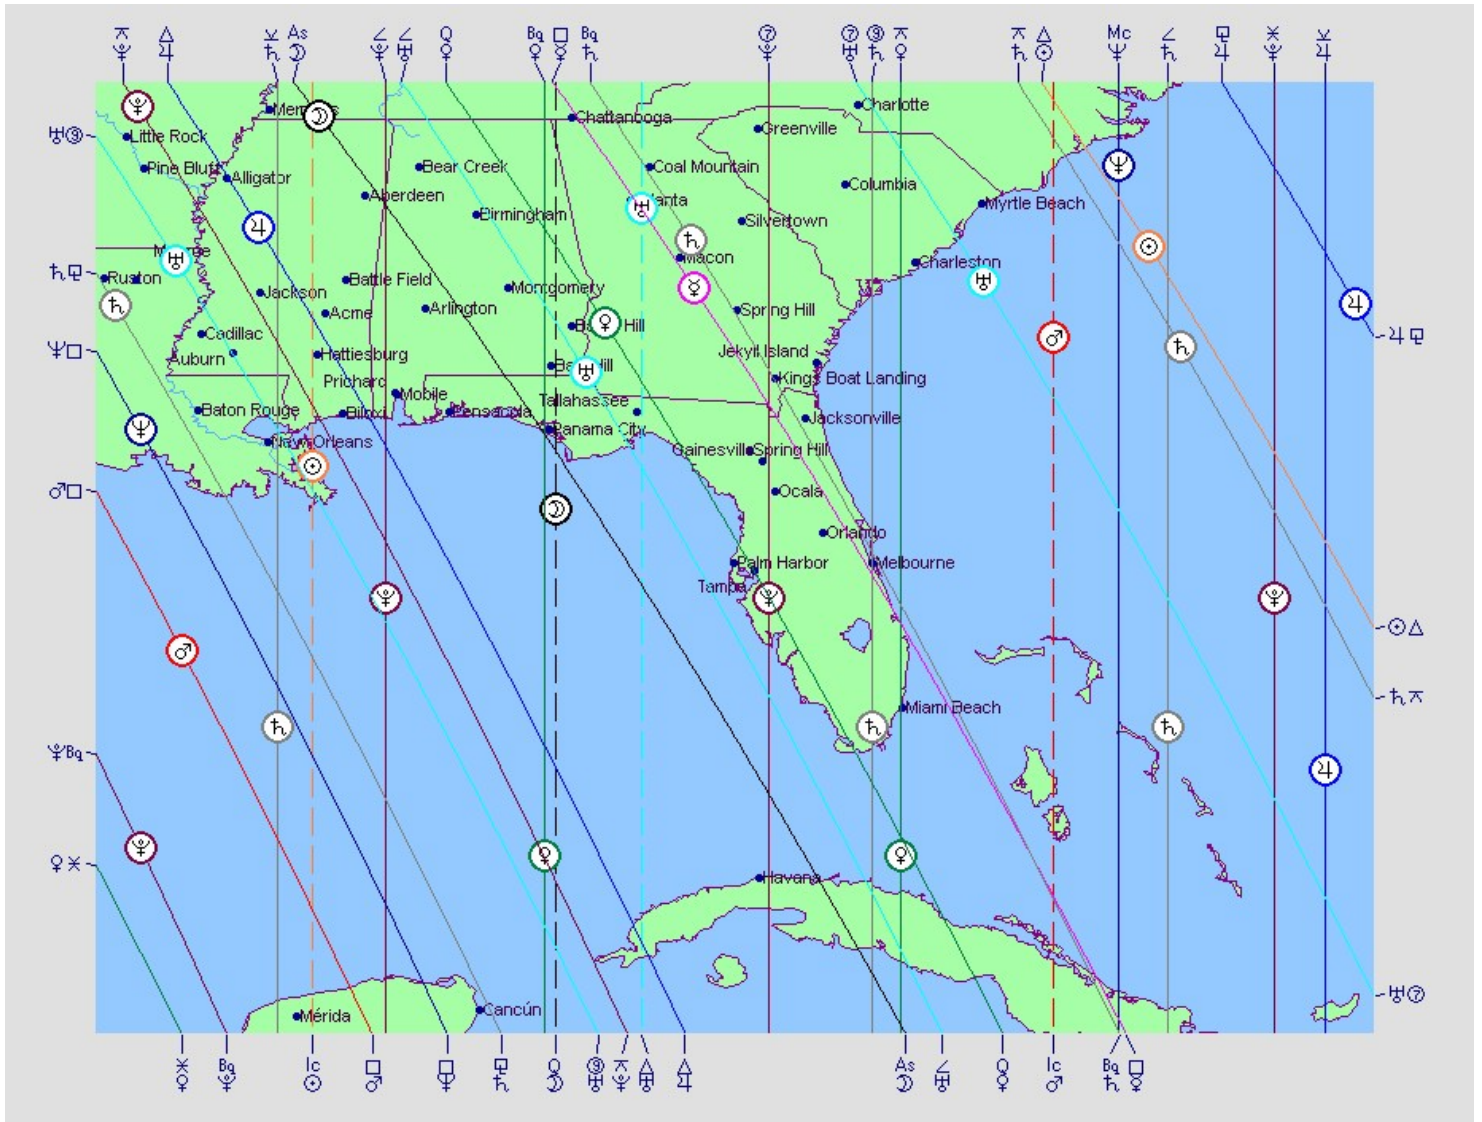

Sun in Third House

You'll likely dive right into the swim of things here, and certainly you won't be shy about being in touch with everyone around you. Close personal touch, maybe not, but lots of social contact, a whirl of messages, plenty of networking and information exchange, of which you may find yourselves the self-appointed center.

Relationship Neptune Sqr AS (Mild)

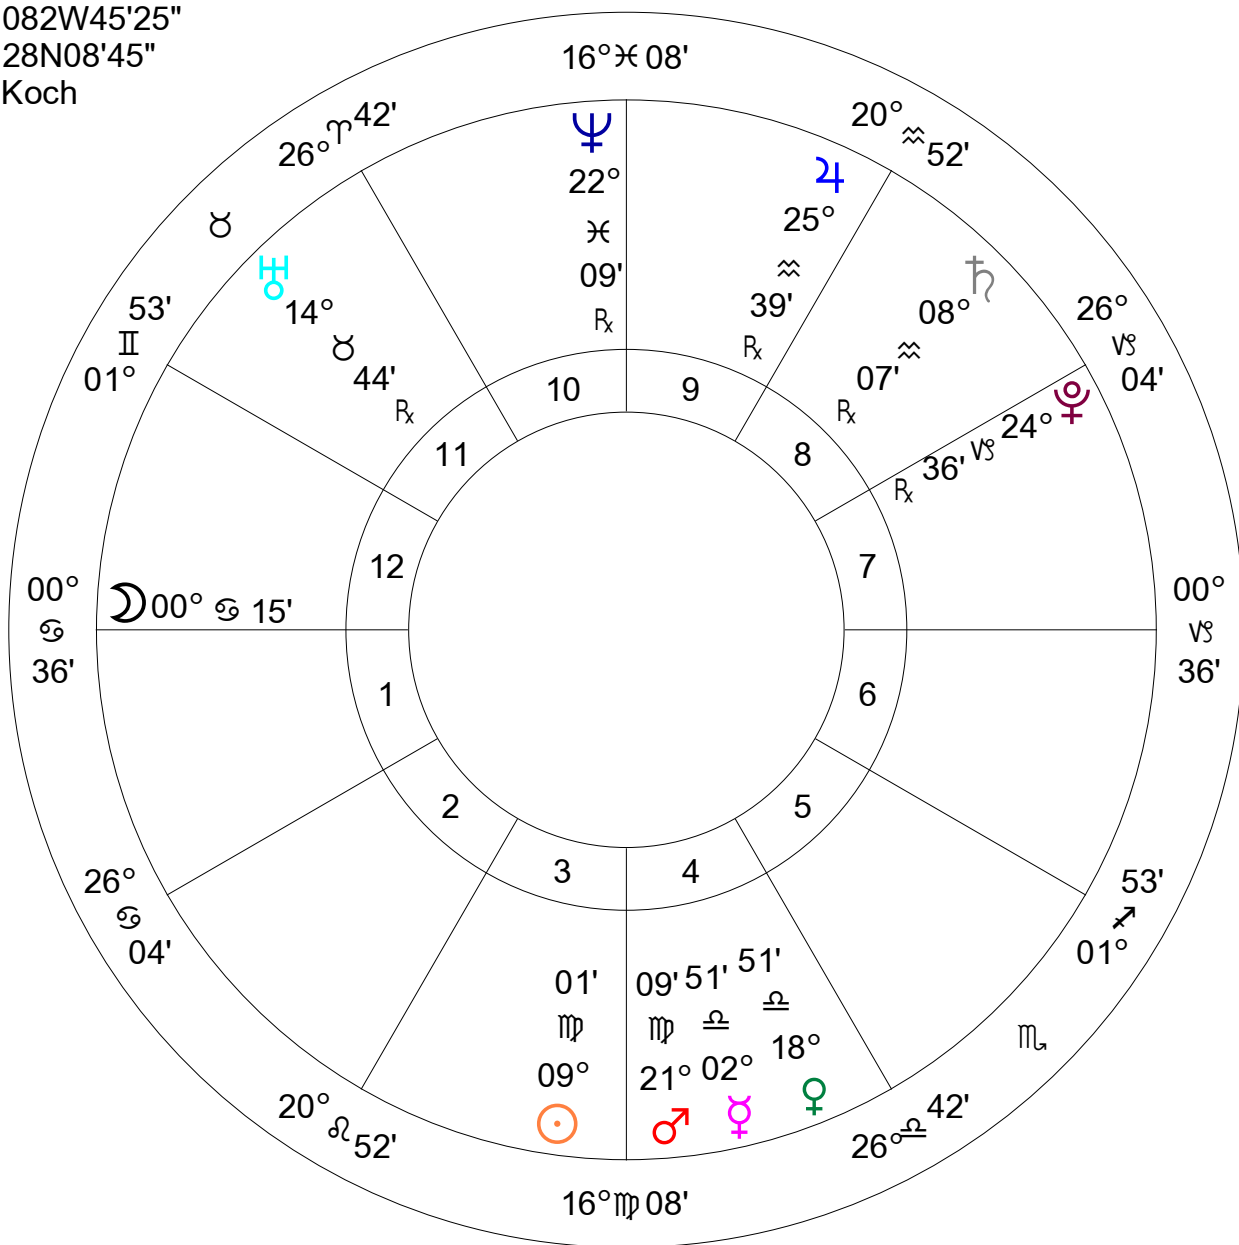

You can find yourselves giving and receiving confusing or mixed messages here, so actually doing what you say you do and what others think you do can be a challenge. It's all about focus, and that's hard to achieve sometimes when you're fishing around for a direction, maybe several overlapping ones at the same time.
